Psalm 104:1-9, 24, 35c

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

O Lord my God, thou art very great!

Thou art clothed with honor and majesty,

who coverest thyself with light as with a garment,
who hast stretched out the heavens like a tent.

Thou didst set the earth on its foundations,
so that it should never be shaken.

Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a garment.

The waters stood above the mountains.

At thy rebuke they fled;

at the sound of thy thunder they took to flight.

The mountains rose,

the valleys sank down to the place
which thou didst appoint for them.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works!

In wisdom hast thou made them all;
the earth is full of thy creatures.

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

Praise the Lord!

Prayer of Adoration and Confession (By All)

Holy and merciful God, in your presence we confess our sinfulness, our shortcomings, and our offenses against you. You alone know how often we have sinned in wandering from your ways, in wasting your gifts, in forgetting your love. Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we are ashamed and sorry for all we have done to displease you. Forgive our sins, and help us to live in your light, and walk in your ways, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. And now, dear Lord, hear the prayers deep within the silence of our hearts

Congregational Reading Hebrews 5:1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
