Introit

*Responsive Call to Worship

Psalm 26:1-3, 6-8

Vindicate me, O Lord, for I have walked in my integrity,

and I have trusted in the Lord without wavering.

Prove me, O Lord, and try me; test my heart and mind.

For your steadfast love is before my eyes,

and I walk in faithfulness to you.

I wash my hands in innocence,

and go around your altar, O Lord,

singing aloud a song of thanksgiving,

and telling all your wondrous deeds.

O Lord, I love the house in which you dwell,

and the place where your glory abides.

In many and various ways

God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets;

but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son,

whom he appointed the heir of all things,

through whom also he created the world.

He reflects the glory of God

and bears the very stamp of his nature,

upholding the universe by his word of power.

When he had made purification for sins,

he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

Now in putting everything in subjection to Christ,

God left nothing outside his control.

As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.

But we see Jesus,

who for a little while was made lower than the angels,

crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death,

so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one.

For it was fitting that he,

for whom and by whom all things exist,

in bringing many sons to glory,

should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through suffering.
